

Yucca Flat Houses Will Take Fearful Bomb Jolt Tuesday

By BILL BECKER
ATOM BOMB SITE, Nev. (AP)—The little white house on the corner of Elm and Main Streets is due to take a fearful pounding tomorrow. And how it comes through may mean life or death to you in an atomic attack.

Fortunately, this house is not on the corner in your home town but in the middle of sprawling Yucca Flat.

Device Packs Punch
There—as 1,000 troops and a group of 20 picked newsmen crouch in foxholes—the two-story frame and concrete structure will be put to a fiery atomic test.

It may or may not withstand the blast from a tower less than a mile and one-half away. A sister structure only 3,500 feet from the tower is expected to be demolished.

It may be a "bomb" to the average man, but tomorrow's test object is still a "device" to Dr. Alvin C. Graves and his fellow scientists. He said neither a shell nor a bomb is being detonated. But the device, whatever its shape, will still pack

City Policeman Kills Soldier, 22

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Authorities planned today to open an investigation into the killing of a Coldwater, Mich., soldier Saturday night by a city policeman.

The soldier, Pfc. Robert H. Ellzey, 22, was killed by a bullet through the head in a Hopkinsville bar. Witnesses said he had been waving and shooting the pistol in the bar.

Coroner Robert Ramsey said he planned to report the facts to County Prosecutor W. E. Rogers and let him decide the future course of the investigation.

City Policeman Booth Morris claimed that Ellzey fired first when he and Patrolman Owen Chilton went to the bar in answer to a summons from the manager, Carl Marquess, who reported a soldier had fired his pistol and was waving it dangerously.

A federal grand jury recently criticized Hopkinsville police, and was supported in its statement by military men from nearby Fort Campbell where Ellzey was stationed.

The grand jury reported several Fort Campbell soldiers had been killed or brutally beaten by civilian officers.

Spiritual Diary For Lent

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.
—Acts 16:31.

Faith means finding the eternal God through the tragedies of life; it means finding Him intimately in the things that make you uncertain. It means that the more insecure a man feels financially, physically and socially, the more he may become aware of that which economic security cannot provide or the lack of it take away.

TODAY'S MESSAGE
Salvation is not the result of a single act, but of a continuing belief and trust in the grace of a loving Saviour. Through faith we hold on to Him, feeling assured that He will not fail us. Every venture in life demands faith, and the more important the undertaking, the greater the faith to be exercised. No wonder, then, that faith in religion surpasses all other faith, and carries us out beyond the tangible things of life into the realm of Divinity.

Faith, therefore can do much to buoy us up in the dark hours of distress and grief, in sorrow and sickness, in bereavement and loss; but it should do more. It should become an integral part of the blood that courses through our bodies, an entwining vine about the tendrils of our hearts and minds, and a vital, radiant note expressed in every word we utter.

Then in all the ever-broadening affairs of life, let us maintain a consecrated faith in God's goodness, love and devotion for us, and accept His plan as our plan and His will as our will. "If God be for us who can be against us?" should be sufficient for every need.

Corsicana, Tex.

TODAY'S PRAYER
O Christ, the "Author and Finisher of our faith" the friend of the friendless, the comforter of those in sorrow, strength for the weak, salvation for all who believe and trust Thee, we commit ourselves anew into Thy keeping today. Amen.

Elections To Decide Fate Of Japanese Premier Yoshida, 74

By JIM BECKER
TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida and his political opponents are squared off for new national elections that will decide the fate of the little man who has led Japan for five years.

The stubborn, 74-year-old Premier, fighting for his political life, called the elections Saturday after the lower house of the Diet (parliament) passed a vote of non-confidence in him. Instead of resigning after the vote, as his opponents wanted, Yoshida dissolved the lower house and took his case squarely to the people.

He set a tentative date of April 19 for the balloting. The elections will give about 45 million voters—slightly more than half of them women—a chance to decide if Yoshida has tied his nation too closely to America, as some opponents charge, and is following too "reactionary" a line in internal policies.

The voters will choose all 466 members of the lower house. Half the 250 members of the upper House of Councillors, which roughly corresponds to Britain's House of Lords, will stand for election a few days later.

Meanwhile, Yoshida heads a caretaker government. The three major opposition parties—Progressives, Rightist Socialists and Leftist Socialists—jammed their nonconfidence motion through the lower house with the aid of 22 members of Yoshida's own Liberal party. The vote was 229-218.

Goes To Scotland
ZEELAND (AP)—The Rev. Harold N. Englund, pastor of the Second Reformed Church here, told his congregation Sunday he plans to go to Edinburgh, Scotland, next September for advanced studies in theology.

The ship in which he had traveled from Yugoslavia, the Galeb Seagull, anchored last night 35 miles down the river and was to have cruised up starting at 8:30 a. m.

As a safety precaution, the scheduled times of his arrival and other events of his visit were kept secret. His stay will include lunch with the Queen at Buckingham Palace, as well as high-level policy talks and a round of dinners.

Bohlen Remains Under Fire Of GOP Minority

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has an opportunity today to talk over with congressional leaders his nomination of Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen as ambassador to Russia.

But the legislators made it plain that, if the controversial subject comes up at their regular White House conference, the President himself will have to take the initiative.

Yalta Role Recalled
Bohlen is under fire from an admitted minority of Senate Republicans—plus Sen. McCarran of Nevada and possibly a few other Democrats—because of connections he had with former Secretary of State Dean Acheson and his role at the 1945 Yalta conference.

Sen. Bridges of New Hampshire, who attends the White House conferences as president pro tempore of the Senate, said he is ready to recommend withdrawal of Bohlen's name but only if Eisenhower brings up the matter.

May Not Come Up
Sen. Taft of Ohio, the Republican leader and a supporter of Bohlen, said he doubts the matter will come up at all. Taft contends Bohlen would be no policy maker at Moscow, adding that the ambassadorship is not "sufficiently important to have a battle about."

Led by Bridges and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), some Republicans seemer intent on making a battle which, Sen. Hoey (D-NC) said in an interview, might destroy Bohlen's usefulness in Moscow if he is confirmed.

"So far as I know, he is an acceptable nominee but it is unfortunate that the President was not advised of the opposition to him before he name was submitted to the Senate," Hoey said.

Favorites Named For US Attorney

DETROIT (AP)—The new United States attorney for the Eastern District of Michigan is expected to be named Tuesday or Wednesday.

Republican Senators Homer Ferguson and Charles E. Potter were reported today ready to disclose their choice for the post that has been held by a Democratic appointee, Philip A. Hart.

Hart resigned early in the year to become legal advisor to Gov. Williams.

Mentioned as possible successors were Fred W. Kaess, Wayne County GOP chairman, and James N. McNally, former prosecutor of Wayne County. An unidentified third candidate also was said to be high in the running.

Party sources indicated Kaess was the most likely choice.

Underwear Colored Too
O'Grady has warned police he'll pay no attention tomorrow to any other than an Irish officer and he'll have no truck with traffic tickets if they aren't green.

Of course, the pair will be decked out in green from head to toe.

"We'll even wear green underwear, in case of an accident," O'Grady chuckled.

Their day will start with visits to any number of business establishments along the city's main artery, Broad Street. At each stop, O'Grady and Duffy will make with a tentative Irish jig, a "top of the mornin'" and a pleasantry or two.

They'll travel in an old-fashioned buggy behind a green-blanketed horse named Patrick. A footman will jump down at each stop to unroll a green carpet for them to tread.

Started In 1911
O'Grady and Duffy, one a portly and the other a spare gentleman, are not advertising anything except their high spirits.

"We just want to bring good cheer, to show people that life is really good living," O'Grady explained. "St. Patrick's Day gives us an excuse."

O'Grady has been proemancing through Richmond bearing the green every St. Patrick's Day since 1911. Duffy started a few years later, also as a solo performer. They decided to make it a duet in 1936.

The two will have a full day tomorrow. Besides their "parade," they have accepted invitations to attend three dinners, a church function and a ball. It will keep them going from 9:30 a. m. until the wee hours.

The church function? At St. Patrick's, of course.

Malenkov Says He's Ready To Talk Peace

America Checks On Sincerity Of Russian Leader

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Eisenhower administration officials carefully studied Soviet Premier Malenkov's latest words of peace today in search of the answer to this question: Is the new regime in Moscow actually interested in trying to improve relations between Russia and the United States?

Officials said that fundamentally the true test of sincerity would lie in the action rather than in words. There are many issues on which the Soviet could demonstrate good intention by specific action, ranging from an easing of tensions in Germany to an armistice in the Korean War.

New Opportunities?

Nevertheless, top administration officials evidently believe, as Secretary of State Dulles declared a week ago, that with new personalities in control in Russia and the U. S. there may be new opportunities to work for peace.

They do not intend, responsible informants said, to overlook any such opportunities. Obviously Malenkov's assurances of peaceful Soviet policy are being discussed here in the light of this approach to world affairs.

Some high officials privately suggested that Malenkov's assertions before the Supreme Soviet parliament in Moscow yesterday fit into a pattern of reaction to the line which Dulles took in a careful statement he made in New York last week.

End of Era

House Considers Tax On Payrolls

LANSING (AP)—This will be payroll tax week in the Legislature, the climax of either just another tax idea that died aborning or the solution of the state's fiscal troubles.

The House is expected to get copies sometime early this week of the business tax proposed last Friday by Speaker of the House Wade Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo).

Van Valkenburg proposed, with strong house backing, that the state impose a levy of five or six mills on the payrolls paid by employers.

The week should show whether this is another of the many tax plans which have bloomed and faded since January or whether it is the proposal which will eat away the state's impending general fund deficit of $90,000,000.

The Senate has two comparable bills to give school districts wider borrowing powers. One is a House-approved measure and the other a Senate bill. Both are scheduled for debate tonight.

The bills would allow schools to pledge their full faith and credit and almost all their state grants to repay loans.

Income Taxpayers Not Late Until Midnight Tonight

DETROIT (AP)—March 15th has come and gone, but if you think you're late with your income return—you aren't.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue extended the filing deadline at the last minute from midnight Sunday to midnight Monday, because Sunday is a non-business day.

In extending the deadline, the bureau announced that returns had come in from 1,800,000 of Michigan's 2,600,000 before the weekend.

That leaves roughly 800,000 who'll be soaked with penalties if their returns aren't in by midnight tonight.

Republicans Clearing Way For Eisenhower Reorganization Plans

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican leaders cleared the way today to speed President Eisenhower's first government reorganization proposal through Congress.

The plan, sent to Capitol Hill last Thursday, would elevate the Federal Security Agency (FSA) to a Cabinet rank department of health, education and welfare.

Senate and House Government Operations Committees today called consolidated public hearings with the idea of speeding up congressional approval.

Scheduled as witnesses were Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, federal security administrator and Eisenhower's choice for secretary of the new department, and Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge.

The House has scheduled consideration of the proposed FSA reorganization Wednesday, with approval considered certain. Chairman Hoffman (R-Mich.) of the House committee said he knew of no opposition, either among Republicans or Democrats.

Sen. Taft of Ohio, Republican Senate leader, said today if the House approves the plan as expected, then the Senate "will probably get it through by next Monday."

In both House and Senate, there were plans to enact legislation permitting the plan to take effect sooner than the usual two months or more for such reorganization proposals.

Under the reorganization law, presidential reorganizations take effect after 60 working days unless vetoed by either the House or Senate. Proposals now under consideration would allow the FSA plan to take effect after 10 days.

The proposed new executive department would include these principal agencies: the Public Health Service, the social security system and the Office of Education.

Campaign Continues To Get New Dealers Out Of Government

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower called in his new civil service commissioner today for a talk with congressional leaders on putting men of his choice in government policy-making jobs.

The idea, Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said, is to get rid of what he termed New Deal thinkers.

Taft said in advance of the scheduled White House meeting that congressional leaders want to get the ideas of Philip Young on possible legislation to root out Democrats still clinging to top government jobs.

Young, dean of the Graduate School of Business of Columbia University, was chosen by Eisenhower last week as chairman of the Civil Service Commission.

Taft, the Senate Republican leader, said in an interview that lawyers for the Federal Security Administration, Labor Department and Agriculture Department appeared to have omitted their own names in compiling lists of jobs in their organizations which do not have civil service status and thus can be filled by the new GOP administration.

"Some of these people themselves may have civil service status, but I don't believe their jobs have any such status," Taft said. "It is in the legal departments of these agencies where there has been real New Deal thinking and it looks as though some of those lawyers have managed to protect themselves in making these reports."

Ann Arbor Pair Phones Kremlin

ANN ARBOR (AP)—In case you're thinking of telephoning the Kremlin in Moscow, the number is AG-123.

Two University of Michigan students found that out Sunday. But that was about all they learned when they tried to put through a call to test the Malenkov-style iron curtain.

Jerry Wisniewski, a Michigan student who speaks Russian, and Barnes Connable, city editor of Michigan daily, student newspaper, began their project Sunday morning. Three hours and 45 minutes later they gave up, without getting the Kremlin.

Armed with a list of questions to ask new Premier Georgi Malenkov, they got through to a telephone operator in Moscow in short order. She didn't know then Kremlin number, so Wisniewski suggested she might call the American Embassy to find out.

Wisniewski was connected with the embassy and spoke to Eddy Gilmore, Associated Press correspondent in Moscow. But Gilmore was cut off after saying hello.

Then another operator disclosed the Kremlin number. But she said she rang it and got no answer.

Because the call wasn't completed, Wisniewski and Connable had to pay only 65 cents in toll charges.

Soviet Premier Cheered Loudly At His Inaugural

By EDDIE GILMORE

MOSCOW (AP)—The more than 1,000 members of the Supreme Soviet unanimously confirmed Georgi M. Malenkov as the Soviet Union's prime minister yesterday and loudly cheered his inaugural assertion that all "troublesome and unsolved" issues with the United States and other countries can be solved peacefully.

One foreign diplomat termed the speech to the nation's parliament by Joseph Stalin's successor "almost an offer to sit down with the United States and anyone else and try to ease the world's tension."

Action Best Proof
"It could be one of the most important statements to be made in a very long while," another diplomat commented.

In Washington, officials of President Eisenhower's administration said they were studying Malenkov's words carefully but commented that the sincerity of any peace overtures would be shown better by action rather than word. Such specific action, they pointed out, could range from an easing of tensions in Germany to an armistice in the Korean War.

As in his funeral oration over Stalin's bier a week ago, Malenkov in his address to the Soviet delegates in the Kremlin's ancient Hall of St. Andrew again stressed a policy of peace.

"At the present and in the future," he asserted, "there is no such troublesome or unsolved question which cannot be solved by peaceful means."

This, he continued in a specific reference, applies to the Soviet Union's relations with all countries including the United States.

Not once did Malenkov refer to "warmongers" or to American "imperialists." Both these terms, formerly so widely applied to activities of U. S. leaders, have been absent from pronouncements of Soviet leaders and the Soviet press since Stalin's death.

Malenkov said his new government's foreign policies are based on respect for the rights of other countries, "strict adherence to all treaties" signed by the Soviet Union, and co-operation and development of business relations with all nations, whether Communist or capitalist.

The Soviet Union, he went on, and thus can be filled by the new GOP administration.

"Some of these people themselves may have civil service status, but I don't believe their jobs have any such status," Taft said. "It is in the legal departments of these agencies where there has been real New Deal thinking and it looks as though some of those lawyers have managed to protect themselves in making these reports."

Easements For Oil Pipe Line Sought In U. P.

Easements for a right of way for a 30-inch oil pipe line crossing the Upper Peninsula from Ironwood to St. Ignace are being acquired through a branch office of the land department of Bechtel Corporation at Escanaba.

R. C. McCampbell, right of way supervisor for Bechtel Corporation, today said that six agents are now employed and the number is expected to be increased to 10. The office is located at 716 Ludington.

The project to bring crude oil from the Canadian oil fields at Edmonton to Canadian refineries at Sarnia, Ont., near Detroit is expected to be completed this year.

Near Rapid River

Lakehead Pipe Line Corporation has the contract for construction of the line from Edmont to the U. S. border.

From Superior, Wis., to Sarnia the line will be 635 miles long, extending across the Upper Peninsula from Ironwood to St. Ignace, crossing the Straits, and then continuing south through Bay City to Sarnia.

In Delta county the oil line will cross US-41 about two or three miles north of Rapid River, McCampbell said.

The oil line will cross the Straits of Mackinac at the narrowest section, about where the Straits Bridge is proposed to be built. The water depth there is about 240 feet.

Pumping Stations

The line on land will be buried about three feet beneath the surface and in acquiring easements the land owners will be reimbursed for any damage to crops or to timber, McCampbell reported.

The crew working out of Escanaba will obtain easements only in the Upper Peninsula. Some of the 30-inch steel pipe has been received at various points along the route and is stockpiled waiting the start of work on the line this spring.

To keep the oil flowing in the line six pumping or "booster" stations will be located along the line. Three such pumping stations are planned in the Upper Peninsula.

The work of the right of way crews in obtaining easements is hoped to be finished in the Upper Peninsula by May 1, McCampbell said.

League Of Women Voters Cited For Election Campaign

The Escanaba League of Women Voters has been awarded a special citation for "Outstanding performance in support of the 1952 National Non-Partisan Register and Vote Campaign" by the Voting Awards Committee of the American Heritage Foundation. More than 15,000 cities, states and organizations had submitted applications for the 1952 Voting Awards.

The American Heritage Foundation is a non-partisan, non-political educational organization functioning in the interests of a higher level of citizenship throughout the United States. Of all phases of citizenship, the Foundation hoods voting to be the most important.

The campaign sponsored by the Escanaba League was to "Get Out the Vote." New voters of Escanaba and neighboring areas were guests of the League at a program designed to acquaint the voters with election procedures and a contest was held between the men and women to get out a record vote. The final outcome of the campaign was a terrific success. No less than 88.3 per cent of registered voters in the city cast ballots in the Nov. 4 election.

This total vote was the largest in local history and the percentage of registered voters who cast ballots in the election far exceeded all previous returns.

J. F. Bailey, 43, Former Escanaban, Dies In Ann Arbor

James F. Bailey, 43, former resident of Escanaba, died unexpectedly Saturday evening at Ann Arbor of a heart attack after returning to his car from a hike with a Boy Scout troop, which included his two oldest sons.

In Escanaba he was assistant materials engineer for the State Highway Department and at the time of his death was in charge of the Highway Department testing division laboratory at Ann Arbor. The Baileys moved to Ann Arbor three years ago.

Actively interested in Boy Scout work, Mr. Bailey served as Scoutmaster of the Escanaba Rotary Club-sponsored troop for several years. He was a member of St. Patrick's Church.

Surviving are his wife, Edith, and four sons, James, Michael, John and David; and his parents, who live in Bay City. Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Tuesday in Ann Arbor. Among those planning to attend the funeral from Escanaba are Robert McCormick and Elmer W. Krause of the Upper Peninsula branch office of the State Highway Department, and members and officers of the Delta county road commission, who left yesterday for Lower Michigan to attend a highway conference at Grand Rapids.

Ponder Control Of Bottled Gas

Whether a franchise or some other form of control over the sale of bottled gas in Escanaba is necessary is being studied by the Escanaba City Council on recommendation of City Manager A. V. Aronson.

Asking the Council to consider the effect of the bottled gas distribution upon the city's own gas utility, the city manager at a recent meeting of the Council said the city attorney is checking to determine what if any controls over bottled gas sales could be adopted by the city.

At the present time the sale of bottled gas is unregulated in Escanaba and in some instances the bottled gas dealers are reportedly "moving in" on customers on the city's lines and servicing them in unauthorized competition with the city utility, the city manager advised the Council.

Aronson pointed out that if a private gas utility were operating in the city it would be required to obtain a franchise, as is the case in other communities. This protects the private company from competition and assures continued service to the people over a long period of years.

But Escanaba, which operates public-owned utilities, is not thus protected by franchise, the city manager told the Council.

Because the city recently established a new propane gas plant, with the new plant to be paid for from revenues, the rate was slightly increased and cannot be reduced for the next seven years, the city manager said. After the gas plant bonds are retired the gas rate can be reduced, he added.

Meanwhile the bottle gas dealers are operating in the city and reportedly taking on some of the city's best customers, although these customers have been served by the city for many years. The city manager asked the Council to consider the problem, which he said would come before them later.

Higher Teacher Salary Schedule Is Approved

An increase of $200 in the salary schedule of the Escanaba Public Schools but without an increase in the maximum salaries attainable was approved by the Board of Education at an adjourned meeting Saturday afternoon.

Starting salaries were increased from $2800 to $3000 and the increases were provided for each step in the schedules up to the maximum of $3900 for women teachers and $4300 for men teachers.

In effect the new schedules provide an increase of $300 per year for teachers now in the school system and who will return next year. The only exceptions are those teachers who are at the maximum level or who will attain the maximum level next year. Of the $300 increase, $100 would have been provided under the old schedule which provides an automatic $100 increase for each additional year of experience up to the maximum of $4100 for men teachers with A.B. degrees and $4300 for men teachers with M.A. degrees. The maximum for women teachers is $3800 for teachers with B.A. degrees and $3900 for teachers with M.A. degrees.

The new schedule permits men teachers with A.B. degrees to reach the maximum in 12 years instead of 14 years and teachers with M.A. degrees to reach the maximum in 13 years instead of 15 years. Women teachers with A.B. degrees will reach the maximum of $3800 in nine years instead of 11 and women teachers with M.A. degrees also will reach the maximum of $3900 in nine years instead of 11 years.

The new schedule will cost an additional $18,200 per year, Supt. John A. Lemmer reported. The salaries of teachers, custodial and clerical workers will represent 86.8% of the total budget for operating purposes.

The board also approved an increase in cumulative sick leave from 30 days to 40 days with full pay. A sick leave of 10 days the first year, with five additional days per year cumulative to the maximum of 40 days was approved. An additional 30 days sick leave, with the salary of substitute teachers deducted, was approved.

The pay of substitute teachers for next year was fixed at $10 per day, to be increased to $12 per day when the substitute teacher works 20 or more consecutive days for the same teacher.

The board discussed driver training in the schools and is considering offering behind the wheel training in the summer months for students over 15. The theory of driving and classroom work would be offered during the school year.

The salary schedule adopted follows:

Years of Experience	A. B. Degree	M. A. Degree
1	$3000	$3000
2	3100	3100
3	3200	3200
4	3300	3400
5	3400	3500
6	3500	3600
7	3600	3700
8	3700	3800
9	3800	3900
10	3900	4000
11	4000	4100
12	4100	4200
13	4200	4300

County Schools Get State Aid

State aid totaling $178,837.40 was mailed today to Delta County township and city school treasurers by Mrs. Ann Villeneuve, county treasurer.

Escanaba received $56,384.30. Gladstone's share was $18,141.20. The sum is 70 percent of the March apportionment due the schools. $76,444.60 more will be sent out at a future date, not yet announced, said Mrs. Villeneuve. Four full apportionments are sent out each year.

Some townships and cities have drawn advances on their money, said Mrs. Villeneuve, explaining why some may seem to be receiving too low an amount.

Here are the amounts which went to the treasurers: Baldwin Rural Agricultural, $6,059.90; Bark River, $25,634.00; Brampton, $3,784.20; Cornell Rural Agricultural, $3,654.00; Escanaba Township, $9,074.80; Fairbanks, $3,488.10.

Ford River, $4,496.80; Garden, $3,176.60; Maple Ridge, $7,898.10; Nahma Rural Agricultural, $6,309.80; Rapid River Rural Agricultural, $15,768.20; Wells, $14,967.40.

Motorists Should Make Known Their Views On Parking Meters

THE subject of parking meters in Escanaba is up for consideration again, as it has been periodically in recent years. It is an interesting subject and a controversial one. Before it is finally disposed of in Escanaba, there will undoubtedly be plenty of discussion of it by local residents, much of it quite heated.

The problem of parking meters and whether they are good or bad for a community is a problem affecting all of the motorists in the community and, in a way, affecting those from outside the community who visit here frequently for shopping purposes, business or other reasons. It is not a problem only for city officials or business establishments in the parking meter zone.

It is not surprising that city officials, here and elsewhere, are generally among the proponents of parking meters. They are a lush source of municipal revenue, easily tapped. City administrators, plagued with problems of municipal finance, naturally look covetous at a new source of revenue and particularly one with the possibilities of parking meters. That is understandable.

Business firms look at the problem from an entirely different viewpoint—how parking meters may affect their business. That is understandable, too. In past years a majority of local business managers have frowned upon parking meters. A few merchants favor them. Parking meters are generally sold to a community on the contention that they will help to solve the parking problem in congested areas. The theory is that motorists become more conscious of parking time limits because of meters.

Parking meters, of course, do not provide any additional parking space in a metered block. They do provide considerable revenue which is used on some cities to purchase off-street parking lots. Opponents of parking meters in Escanaba contend that this is not necessary here.

The decision regarding parking meters will be made by the city council. The attitudes of the motorists who will be expected to keep the coin slots clicking will be important in that decision, provided the motorists make their attitudes known. If you are for parking meters, tell the councilmen about it. If you are against parking meters, tell the councilmen that.

It should be your decision, as much as it is the decision of the members of the council or the decision of the merchants.

Recount Regulation Should Be Revised

MICHIGAN'S regulations covering election recount procedures should be rewritten.

Gov. Williams last fall posted $9,340 to cover the required deposit in a counter petition for a recount of paper ballot precincts after his Republican opponent, Fred Alger Jr. had filed a petition to recount part of the state's paper ballot precincts.

The recount failed to change the results of the election so neither Alger nor Williams were legally entitled to a refund, according to a ruling by Attorney General Millard. The law provides that a refund shall be granted only when the election results are upset by a recount. The law, of course, was designed to discourage defeated candidates from demanding recounts of every election.

Since he is a wealthy young man, the loss of $9,340 to Gov. Williams may not be disheartening even though it undoubtedly is irritating. There is a matter of principle involved in this situation, however, and for the best interests of the public the law should be revised so that the winner of an election would be entitled to a refund if he has made a deposit for a recount of ballots. The next candidates involved in this situation may not be as fortunate in financial assets as Gov. Williams is.

Other Editorial Comments

THE FIRST NEED (Detroit Free Press)

Delay in enlarging and improving the State's prison system is costing millions of dollars and is inviting new disturbances, Austin McCormick, director of the Osborne Foundation, told members of the Michigan Legislature.

A nationally known penologist, McCormick was the technical adviser to the citizens' committee which recently reported on the State's prison requirements.

What McCormick told the legislators was, in effect, only a digest of the committee report. The chief recommendations of the committee called for at least one new institution.

Few people, the legislators included, will find fault with the proposals made by either the committee or McCormick. But the difficulty lies in finding the money to make these constructive and needed changes in the face of the State's huge financial deficit.

It should impress upon the lawmakers and the Governor the need for correcting Michigan's fiscal imbalance as the first essential step in any program of improvements.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson went into a complete, though secret reverse last week. After telling a senate committee he could have no real cuts in the defense budget, he ordered the Navy to cut by two billions, the Air Force by two billions, and the Army by a quarter billion.

Reason for the reversal was a determined desire on the part of Budget Director Joe Dodge to chop expenses, plus realization that in the armed forces there's the greatest fat.

Here is some news which may help Dodge and Wilson.

A little over a year ago—Feb. 4, 1952—this column reported in detail how the Army, Navy, Air Force overlapped, duplicated, and completed with each other in buying supplies. In such a relatively simple item as carpenter's squares, for instance, a carpenter's square for the Quartermaster Corps 65 cents, for the Navy $2, for the Army $1.90, for the Signal Corps $2.10, for the Army Engineers $1.48, for the Air Force $1.40.

Furthermore, even within the Army itself, there is no standardization of carpenter's squares, so that the army catalog "contained six separate specifications for squares—the Signal Corps', Ordnance's Transportation's, Engineers', Chemical Warfare's, and Quartermaster Corps'." On top of this, Air Force has to have a seventh number, and the bare cost of reprinting Army catalogs to add the Air Force's 7th number is about $1,500,000.

Last year also, a subcommittee spearheaded by Congressman Carl Vinson of Georgia and Eddie Hebert of Louisiana performed extensive research on armed services duplication, finally passed a law requiring the Army, Navy, Air Force to compile one catalog from which they all would order instead of competing against each other through separate catalogs.

That law was passed on July 1, 1952. Since then, the defense department has had 300 people working full time in Washington, plus 3,000 people working part time in the field to compile a joint armed services catalog. Finally, after spending $87,000,000, they have produced the first edition—a catalog on "subsistence" or food—length, 40 pages!

In contrast, the complete purchasing catalogs of the Army, Navy, Air Force fill one room. So, at the rate of $87,000,000 for 40 pages, it will take billions to complete the entire catalog.

CONFIDENTIAL MEMO

As a result of this dilly-dallying, acting Defense Secretary William Foster in the Truman administration sent a confidential memo to his Republican successor on the day before Eisenhower took over. This column has obtained a copy of the confidential memo, which reads:

"You will recall that I touched briefly on the subject of the cataloging and standardization program and my concern as to its effectiveness. Attached is a copy of my memo to Mr. Sheridan, defense management staff, recommending action I believe to be appropriate."

Foster enclosed not only his recommendation for the use of outside civilian experts to cut Army-Navy duplication, but he also enclosed an amazing memo from Edward J. Sheridan in which the defense management director admitted complete failure by the armed forces to get together on a joint, standardized buying program.

According to the confidential memo, the 40-page catalog for the purchase of food, referred to above, "does not include information on each item needed for supply operations such as size, weight, cubage—this means that the subsistence catalog which covers the simplest catalog of items existing in the military supply system cannot be used in supply operations."

In other words, after spending $87,000,000 of the taxpayers' money and eight months time, even the meagre 40 pages of standardized cataloging aren't worth using.

"It would appear," continues the confidential memo, "that if this practice is followed for the remaining 73 groups of items to be cataloged, the intent of the congress will not be met and that a single cataloging system will not be developed."

"Further the subsistence catalog, first published in November 1952, is already at the printer for revision and inclusion of 300 additional items"—which the boys forgot.

"One million new items have entered the supply system since the Korean war started," the memo continued, "and represent a tremendous backlog of work."

"The rate of new items coming into the system is greater than the rate of cataloging," confesses Mr. Sheridan. "This means that we have undoubtedly spent needless time, money, and effort in cataloging items which were obsolete."

When congress passed the law for standardized buying it was estimated that the elimination of competing Army-Navy warehouses, duplicate warehousing personnel, duplicate books, cataloging, etc., would save the taxpayers four billions. Instead it has cost $87,000,000 extra. Four billions is just about the amount Budget Director Dodge has ordered Secretary Wilson to prune. This may be one way to do it.

Note—The Navy has ordered 14,500 copies of the 40-page new catalog on food, the Army only 50 copies, the Air Force none; which indicates that the latter two don't intend to use the new catalog but will go their own way.

The First Shot:

Eisenhower Denunciation Of Yalta Pact Is Opener In New Offensive

By LEON DENNEN

NEW YORK—(NEA)—President Eisenhower's virtual denunciation of the Yalta agreement may give new hope to the millions enslaved by Russia in Eastern Europe—millions who long regarded the 1945 treaty as the instrument which first subjected them to Red domination.

It may well strengthen their resistance at the very moment when Moscow seeks to obliterate the last traces of satellite independence.

The President thus fired the first shot in the new psychological offensive against communism in his State of the Union message to Congress.

Between the West and Russia lie nine nations, once independent, but today entirely dominated by Moscow largely as a result of the Yalta agreement—Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria and Albania. They represent a population of more than 100 million Europeans.

The indulgence shown Russia by the U. S. and Britain during the 1945 negotiations at Yalta virtually gave Stalin the go-ahead signal to deprive these nations of their freedom.

The Yalta agreement—especially the secret clauses now repudiated by President Eisenhower—acknowledged in effect Russia's right to carve out for herself after the end of the last war a "sphere of influence" not only in Eastern Europe but also in Northern Asia.

The Kremlin long to help the Allies in the war against Japan—but for a stiff price. Stalin demanded, in addition to influence in Eastern Europe and the Balkans, the award of Japan's northern islands—the Kuriles and South Sakhalin—as well as a free hand in Outer Mongolia, Manchuria and other parts of China.

He thus prepared the ground for the war in Korea and Moscow's bid for a dominant position in Asia.

The late President Roosevelt and Britain's Prime Minister Winston Churchill accepted Stalin's terms—though they were met at the expense of our Chinese ally and without Chiang Kai-shek's knowledge or consent.

As part of the Yalta "bargain," the Russians also promised "full freedom" to the East European and Balkan nations that fell within their sphere. Like all Red commitments this agreement became a dead letter.

Even while President Roosevelt was reporting to Congress on March 1, 1945, on the "historic" achievements at Yalta, Romanian Communists with the help of the Red Army staged a bloody coup

So They Say

If agriculture spent a tenth of the money distillers spend for advertising, we'd make tremendous progress.—Iowa farm leader Howard Koach.

Preachers from my district have told me you can't buy a book on how to train a dog without it having a picture of a naked woman on the cover.—Texas State Sen. A. J. Rogers.

A death, a few defections, another Sen. Wayne Morse and President Eisenhower can be rendered as helpless as President Hoover was in 1930.—Sen. Wallace Bennett (R., Utah).

They (European leaders) see the land of promise (European Defense Community) that lies ahead, and they desire to move into it.—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

I never let my football team (the coached Cornell) play dirty and I don't myself.—Rep. Daniel Reed (R., N. Y.), on getting his tax-cut bill passed.

Those who can't play on both offense and defense (in football) will sit on the bench.—Retiring Tennessee football coach Gen. Robert Neyland.

and overthrew the legal government of Romania.

The techniques employed by the Russians (under the cover of the Yalta agreement) to tighten their grip on the satellites varied. Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, seized by Russia from the Germans during the war, were incorporated into the Soviet Union.

In the other satellites the Kremlin set up governments of native Communists, who rule along Soviet lines imposed and supported by Russian military force.

The former U. S. administration upheld Yalta and the subsequent Potsdam agreement—which sanctioned the partitioning of Germany and made Russia ruler of the Eastern zone—on the ground that these agreements would have been justified had Stalin kept his end of the bargain.

But western experts on communism saw these agreements—especially the Yalta agreement—as blunders that were largely responsible for America's postwar foreign policies.

In his message to Congress, President Eisenhower said his administration "recognizes no commitment contained in secret understandings of the past" with foreign governments.

"We shall never acquiesce in the enslavement of any people in order to purchase fancied gain for ourselves," the President declared. By repudiating Yalta, the President thus gave the anti-Communist world a fresh and clear-cut foreign policy. He also gained an important psychological victory in the cold war.

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles believe that the free world should shift from the defensive to the offensive in the cold war—and thus make Moscow for once dance to the West's tunes.

They believe that intensified propaganda and psychological warfare could accomplish this—and thus lessen the chances of a global atomic war.

Good Evening...

AIR TRAVEL—Although North Central Airlines will start regular flights between Upper and Lower Michigan April 4 via Green Bay, don't expect the schedule to be too well maintained at Escanaba airport.

The fault will not be with North Central Airlines but because of inadequate facilities at Escanaba airport. By inadequate facilities we mean one runway—just one—that must serve planes for all flights in and out of Escanaba.

This north-south runway is a good one, but it is not enough. There must be an east-west runway constructed if Escanaba is to avoid those annoying "fly-overs" that leave passengers stranded here and the community without plane service for a day or more.

If there are cross winds of 20 miles an hour planes cannot land on our one runway," Loren Jenkins, city engineer, recently advised the Escanaba City Council.

WELL MAINTAINED—Menominee airport has three runways and planes can land there no matter what direction the wind is from, the city engineer added.

"It is not true that all the fly-overs at Escanaba are caused by snow removal failure," Jenkins told the Councilmen in reply to a question.

The question was put by Mayor Robert E. LeMire, who said that he had been asked why North Central Airlines planes flew over Escanaba occasionally without stopping. This left passengers stranded here, or if they were coming to Escanaba to arrive from Menominee by train or auto.

ROLL OR PLOW—The airport is maintained by Fred Sensiba, Pioneer Aviation president, under a contract with the city. That contract will soon expire and unless the city reconsiders the terms of the contract Sensiba may not be interested in renewing it, Jenkins informed the Council.

"Sensiba has done a good job in keeping the snow rolled on the runway and the field open for traffic," Jenkins reported. "When the planes can't land here it is because of cross winds, not because of snow conditions."

The question of rolling vs plowing the runway was briefly discussed and it was Jenkins opinion that plowing the runway would cost the city between $2,000 and $3,000 a year more.

Spring break-up does bring a bad condition on the runway when the rolled snow begins to melt, Jenkins said. But from the standpoint of cost the city should probably continue rolling rather than try to remove the snow, he added.

LOOKING AHEAD—No doubt the city will need to consider what it proposes to do about improving the airport as well as now well it plans to maintain its one runway.

Daily plane service connecting Escanaba and the Upper Peninsula with Lower Michigan cities is a great convenience. It is something Escanaba has long advocated—without traveling to Green Bay first, of course.

The time may come when North Central may want to respond to requests for really direct intra-state mail and passenger flights. Geographically Escanaba is the logical U. P. focal point for flights from Lower Michigan.

SHARING THE COST—When and if this time should come Escanaba will not be prepared to handle such flights—because its one runway airport is inadequate.

Should the city go forward with plans for an additional east-west runway it will find that state and federal funds are available for such a project on a matching basis.

There is no doubt that rolling the snow on the airport runway is not the best answer to the problem. Spring break-ups necessitate fly-overs as inconvenient as those caused by cross winds on the one runway.

But the long range view cannot be overlooked in planning further development of the airport—and this inevitably leads to the conclusion that an additional runway is needed.

With two runways the Escanaba airport would meet most of the requirements of federal regulations. Until those requirements are met Escanaba cannot expect its airport to become other than a stop on the route leading to Green Bay and thence to Lower Michigan.

The Doctor Says . . . Over 50% Of Nephrosis Cases Show Full, Lasting Recoveries

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

"My son, who is 25 years old," writes Mrs. L., "is suffering from a disease called nephrosis. Can you tell me something about this and is it really incurable?"

First, what is nephrosis? It is a more or less general term applied to any one of several degenerative diseases of the kidney in which inflammation of that organ appears to be absent, thus separating it from the typical nephritis or Bright's disease.

There are actually several kinds of nephrosis—in some of which the cause can be discovered, and in some of which it cannot. The so-called "true" nephrosis is a chronic disease of unknown origin, much more common among children than adults. In any event, the typical signs of nephrosis, regardless of cause, consist of gradually increasing fluid in the tissues—edema or dropsy—the presence of a kind of protein in the urine known as albumen, and a lessening of the same albumen in the fluid portion of the blood.

It is a painful condition but the waterlogging of the tissues is, of course, uncomfortable.

The outlook for victims of true nephrosis is not bad, and although there is an increased susceptibility to infections, over half the patients recover and remain well.

As may be imagined, the treatment of nephrosis is highly technical and must always be adjusted to the individual patient. In general, however, one must guard against infections, salt in the diet must be kept to a bare minimum, and many patients are better off in bed.

TREATMENT IS IMPROVED

In addition to these measures, it may or may not be desirable to give certain medicines which increase the output of urine and thus carry off some of the excessive fluid. The use of cortisone or ACTH may also have to be considered, though it is not yet certain just what part these hormones will play in treatment.

It is not entirely clear whether nephrosis is increasing or not, and the cause of "true" nephrosis still has to be worked out, but it is certain that recent years have brought much better understanding of the condition and considerable improvement in methods of treatment.

THREE-WAY HANDSHAKE AT POTSDAM: Stalin (right) didn't keep his end of the bargain.

Julie Steps Into Harness Of Ernie Pyle's Shetland

MRS. ELLA STREGER AND JULIE: Into a celebrity's harness.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—(NEA)—Julie, a seven-month-old Shetland sheep dog, is stepping into a celebrity's harness.

Julie belongs to Mrs. Ella Streger of Albuquerque, nurse and companion of the late Mrs. Ernie Pyle. Her illustrious predecessor was Cheetah, a Sheltie who shared the limelight with the late Ernie Pyle, famed war correspondent, whenever he came home to New Mexico from his war travels.

When Pyle was killed in the Pacific in 1945, Mrs. Pyle gave Cheetah to Mrs. Streger.

"I had her for ten and a half years," Mrs. Streger recalls wistfully. "She was a wonderful companion."

When Cheetah died in 1951, Mrs. Streger thought perhaps some day she'd ask the kennels in Falls Church, Va., where Cheetah was born, to find her another dog as much like Cheetah as possible.

Bat In Newsroom Is Felled By Hawk

FRANKFORT, Ind. (AP)—Bats swooped into the Frankfort Times composing room and unnerved the compositors for several nights in a row.

Then one of the "flying mice" made the mistake of venturing on into the newsroom, where it was felled by a firmly rolled copy of the newspaper. The marksman was Merl Hawk.

other dog as much like Cheetah as possible.

Last Summer Mrs. Streger went to Falls Church, and there was Julie, bred from the same strain as Cheetah and very much alike in looks and temperament.

Now Julie bunks on Mrs. Streger's back porch in Albuquerque and shares her bed with one of Cheetah's "pigs"—a crockery jug that's filled with hot water to keep the Sheltie warm on cold nights.

Bill To Abolish Bounties Dies In House Committee

By JAMES A. O. CROWE
Associated Press Outdoor Writer
LANSING (AP)—The bill to abolish state bounties on predatory animals is the latest casualty in the House Conservation Committee.

A hearing was held on the bill this week at the regular taken no official action.

But conversation with the members makes it clear they never had any intention of reporting the bill favorably and held the hearing only as a courtesy to the sponsor, Rep. Richard L. Thomson (R-Highland Park.)

The committee is expected to take the formal vote to kill the last week, and the committee has Tuesday meeting.

Abolition of the $185,000 a year bounty system on foxes, wolves and coyotes has been recommended by the conservation commission, the Michigan United Conservation Clubs boards of directors and probably the majority, of sportsmen.

The arguments against continuing the bounty system are that the system is inefficient, expensive and has been scientifically proven to have little if any effect on the populations of either the predators or game species.

Accidents Kill 11 In Michigan

By The Associated Press

Eleven persons met death in accidents over the weekend in Michigan.

Six traffic mishaps, two fires, and two miscellaneous accidents accounted for the death toll.

A rooming house fire, touched off by a freak traffic accident, claimed the lives of two elderly women at Cheboygan Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret McGinn, 78, and Miss Margaret Black, 60, both of Cheboygan, died in the blaze that started when a car knocked down a utility pole and a telephone wire fell on the roof of the house, causing a short circuit.

Three others in the house escaped injury.

An 82-year-old retired Detroit police officer died early Saturday in a fire in his Detroit home. The victim was Charles H. Schaub.

The list of traffic victims included a 55-year-old Detroit area woman who had been married just 10 hours before her death. Mrs. Bernada McDonald Schneirla of Taylor township was killed Saturday in Wayne County when a car driven by her new husband was rammed by another auto that skidded on wet pavement.

A crash near Albion Sunday killed two elderly Marshall residents. A car driven by Reed R. Carly, 77-year-old retired farmer, went out of control and hit a tree, instantly killing Carly and Mrs. Gertrude Stella Monroe, 72-year-old widow.

A 26-year-old ship's oiler, Leon Edison West of Huntington, W. Va., drowned Saturday in Lake Erie while trying to climb aboard the SS Ferbert, tied up at Monroe. Fellow seamen said West was returning from shore leave and apparently lost his hold while attempting to climb over a guard rail.

John George Edcorn, 27, of White Pigeon, lost his life Saturday when a sign he was installing at a used car lot at White Pigeon slipped and fell on top of him.

NEW YORK (AP)—Angry anti-Communists of Russian origin yesterday broke up a concert planned as a memorial to Premier Stalin. No one was reported injured and no arrests were made. A few chairs in the meeting hall, scene of the planned concert, were pushed around and there was considerable name-calling before police restored order.

A group identified as the Russian Ukrainian-Carpatho Russian Committee hired the hall, police said.

Paychecks Due For $10 Boost

DETROIT (AP)—Most business in Detroit in 1952 and hourly and weekly factory wages set new records, a Board of Commerce statistician reported today.

Furthermore, wrote John R. Stewart in the board's weekly publication, "The Detroitier," wages showed such an upswing during the year that a substantial boost in earnings during 1953 could be predicted.

Stewart forecast a $10 boost in average weekly paychecks going to Detroit factory workers during 1953.

He said weekly earnings, including overtime and other premium pay, averaged $84.04 for all of 1952 and $94.31 for December alone. The lower figure, he reported, was 10 per cent above any previous year.

"Part of this total resulted from a 43.6-hour week," Stewart added. "Today, with overtime still prevalent, earnings probably are higher still."

"Overtime may decline somewhat in the last half of 1953, but it is estimated that average weekly earnings for the full year will equal or exceed last December's pay levels."

The statistician also said real earnings, or the amount of purchasing power in a paycheck, rose 14 per cent during the year.

Gen. Vandenberg Says He's Fed Up With Red Air Raids In Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg said last night he is "fed up with our boys being used as clay pigeons" by Communist plane pilots in Europe.

"I'm worried about it," said Vandenberg, the Air Force chief of staff, in speaking of the situation which saw two planes, one U. S. and one British, shot down by the Reds in Germany last week.

He said in talking with newsmen on his return from an inspection trip to Europe and Africa, that he could not comment further.

Vandenberg said U. S. pilots in the American zone of Germany must fly near the borders of Communist East Germany and Czechoslovakia "to see what is going on, but they stay well within our own lines."

It is estimated that America has about a 1,150,000,000 acres of farm land, an increase of about 95 million acres since 1935.

Soviet Premier Says He's Ready To Discuss Peace

would weld even tighter its links with its allies, and especially with Communist China and the "people's democracies" of Eastern Europe.

Regime Streamlined

On the home front, Malenkov said, his government would work for five things: to make the state even more powerful, tighten the bonds among the Soviet Union's various nationalities, strengthen the armed forces, better standards of living and guarantee the "unity" of party and government.

The two legislative houses—the Soviet of the Union and Soviet of Nationalities—met for only one hour and seven minutes, then adjourned and headed for home. During the session they also confirmed the other members of Malenkov's regime named after Stalin's death and approved a sweeping government reorganization streamlining the previous 54 ministries down to only 26.

This unanimous action had been certain, Malenkov was chosen prime minister, and the government reorganization launched, on March 6 at a joint session of the nation's three most powerful bodies—the Central Committee of the Communist party, the Council of Ministers and the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet. The most important changes were announced then.

Diplomats Present

The session yesterday was witnessed by members of the diplomatic corps, including U. S. Charge d'Affaires Jacob Beam, and foreign correspondents.

Malenkov's nomination as prime minister was put before the delegates by Lavrenty P. Beria, the new interior minister and a first deputy prime minister.

After his speech, Malenkov listed the new government lineup and changes. The reorganization, he said, all was planned while Stalin was still alive.

In addition to Beria, he designated Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, Defense Minister Marshal Nikolai Bulganin and Lazarus M. Kaganovich as "first deputy" prime ministers. A. I. Mikoyan, minister for foreign and internal trade, was listed as "deputy prime minister."

Earlier in the session the Soviet also approved unanimously the previous selection of Marshal Klementy Voroshilov as chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet Union's titular president.

this country. The world now is entering the Eisenhower era, he said. He expressed the view that Stalin's death, ending his "malignant" influence, would enhance the chances for peace.

Malenkov said yesterday there were no controversial issues with the U. S. or any other nation that could not be settled peacefully.

Experts on Soviet relatives suggested that what Malenkov said was about as vague as anything Stalin ever said about peace during those times when, in the view of the American government, he was talking out of both sides of his mouth.

Malenkov mentioned no specific issue for settlement, offered no particular formula and made no commitment on anything. He did go out of his way a little bit, however, to specify that he thought issues between Russia and other countries could be settled.

Movie 'The Robe' Has Biggest Of Everything

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — This week they were shooting the big scene of the biggest picture made here in years, so I dropped on the set to watch.

The film is "The Robe," which is getting the most of everything. It has the biggest sets, the largest cast and the biggest headaches of any Hollywood film within memory of press agents. The headaches are because it is the pioneering film of the new wide-screen Cinemascope process.

Soldiers Cast Lots

The key scene in the picture comes when the Roman soldiers gamble for Christ's robe after he has been crucified. It is reported in the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John that the soldiers cast lots for his clothing. John 19 says: "... His tunic was without seam, woven from top to bottom; so they said to one another, 'Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be.'"

That was the passage that gave birth to "The Robe." A woman wrote novelist Lloyd Douglas, wondering what might have happened to the holy garment. The question intrigued Douglas. He started a short story on the subject, and it blossomed into the immensely popular novel.

When I arrived on the set, I found the camera set up before a realistic replica of the hill where Jesus died. In the background was a huge panoramic canvas depicting the city of Jerusalem.

Face Won't Be Seen

On the top of the hill were three crosses. They were to be occupied by three unknown actors. Producer Frank Ross insisted that they be unidentifiable by general audiences.

Actually, the face of Jesus will never be seen in the film. Ross reasoned that everyone has his own idea of what Jesus looked like. Besides, the scenes would have to be cut for England, which permits no impersonation of Christ on its screens.

It was about time for the scene to start. Victor Mature, as a Grecian slave, was to pick up the robe reverently and hand it to the boastful soldiers. A few dozen extras dressed as Holy Land natives watched silently. First the assistant director warned them: "Put away all modern jewelry, eyeglasses, cigarettes, pipes, newspapers and chewing gum."

Then the scene began.

Italian Towns Show Movies On Bedsheets

ROME (AP)—The only movie screen for some Italian villagers is a bed sheet lent by a housewife on those rare occasions when a motion picture comes to town. For the woman whose bed sheet is hung up in the town hall, or town square, it is a big honor. Her neighbors vie jealously for the same privilege.

The Italian society of authors and publishers, which keeps a record of all Italian films produced to safeguard royalty rights of authors, says there are 2,400 Italian communities without movie theaters. In these hamlets the inhabitants, to see a motion picture, often call on their mayor and town council for help. A special collection is taken up and a motion picture projector rented from the nearest city.

Apples, apricots, cherries, peaches, raspberries, and strawberries, are all members of the rose family.

ALL SQUARED AWAY—Movie star Arlene Dahl has a new title—"Queen of Figures." The title was conferred upon her at a Los Angeles meeting of the National Association of Accounting Engineers when they surveyed her in the gossamer finery she wears in her latest film, "Desert Legion." The mathematical wizards computed that of Arlene's 3560 square inches there are 1640 square inches of pink flesh exposed to view and an additional 1100 square inches discernible through her princess' wardrobe.

Now You Can Drink A Nice Cool Steak

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—That he-man meal, steak smothered with onions and mushrooms, can now be poured into a glass and sipped like a drug store fountain drink.

H. Ned Draudt, graduate student at Ohio State University and research chemist for Kinkaid and Co., of Indianapolis, Ind., is the man who turned the trick.

The liquid steak is made to order for persons with dietary problems or persons having difficulty chewing. It can be drunk either like a cocktail or spooned like soup.

It is an ideal solution to persons having waistline worries, Draudt said, for it is high in protein and low in calories. He said the steak would retail for 59 cents a can.

Boy, 8, Gets Even With Bossy Police

NEW YORK (AP)—This story could be titled "The Little Boy's Revenge" or "Okay, Coppers, you'll Suffer for This."

And they did.

The police asked for it a week ago when one patrolman ordered 8-year-old Joseph Bryant off a street corner, saying:

"Get away from there, you'll have your head chopped off."

Plots Revenge

Joseph brooded. They couldn't do that to him. Then he got his revenge.

He went to police and told this story:

Wednesday night, he said, he saw two youths choke a small boy to death and bury his body in the rubble of a Bronx building being demolished. Two other youngsters backed up Joseph's tale.

Armed with picks and shovels, two dozen cops went to work. Joseph pointed to a spot. They dug, and uncovered nothing but a lot of rubble. Joseph pointed to another spot, and then another. The cops dug laboriously.

One policeman caught his trousers on barbed wire as he climbed over a fence. Joseph never cracked a smile.

Nobody Missing

It occurred to someone to check on the victim. Joseph and his chums solemnly gave the name of an 8-year-old they said disappeared from his home. The boy wasn't at that address, either. Panting harder, the cops dug in again.

After two hours and countless shovelfuls of dirt and debris, they began to get suspicious.

Joseph stuck to his story. Then they assured him he would not be punished even if he had made the whole thing up. This time Joseph admitted the hoax and told the

Senate Looks Into County Asylums For Mentally Ill Cases

LANSING (AP)—A far-reaching plan for setting up virtual county asylums for the mentally ill was proposed in the Senate today.

Long under discussion by the Senate Appropriations Committee, the plan would permit county social welfare boards to operate "medical care facilities" in conjunction with county infirmaries. They also would provide state building money for the construction and expansion of the infirmaries and provide county care for those whose mental powers have failed, but who fall short of being violent.

The proposals were filed by Senator Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield) chairman of the committee and nine other senators. The committee has charged for several years that one reason the state's mental hospital costs are so high is that the institutions are filled with senile persons who need only normal bed care.

They have contended that a series of county hospitals could provide that care at much less cost than the state institutions, which must be built on the theory that they will house violent patients and must have expensive treatment equipment.

The county units, under the bills would be allowed to handle persons with prolonged illnesses, defects, infirmities, senility and convalescents. They would not be permitted to care for persons with psychoses, tuberculosis or cummunicable diseases. One bill would require the state to pay $100,000 or half the cost of constructing or expanding county facilities. Counties would be allowed to levy one mill of taxation annually also. Two or more counties could join to operate one institution.

The State Social Welfare commission would have power to enforce reasonable standards of operation and care.

The Legislature recessed until Monday night in honor of the late Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck who was buried today.

Peak year of Alaskan gold production was 1940, with $26,458,951 worth.

Electric Survey Report Received

A preliminary report on the electrical survey being conducted for the City of Gladstone has been received by City Manager H. J. Henrikson.

The report contains estimated costs of both steam and Diesel plants and operation costs of both types of plants.

Steam operation was recommended by the consultants in the events the City of Gladstone is to build a plant.

Because a considerable amount of water, about 5,000 gallons per minute, is required for cooling the turbines, the engineers suggest a building site near the present water plant.

Cost of a steam generating plant would come higher than the Diesel plant but there would be a saving in operation costs in the former type.

The report indicated a bond issue for a Diesel plant could be retired in 16 years while retirement of a larger bond issue for a steam plant would take only one year longer because of the savings in operating costs.

Regulations On Trapping Given

Regulations covering the 1953 beaver trapping season in Conservation Department District No. 4, which includes Chippewa, Luce, Mackinac, Schoolcraft and the east half of Alger Counties, have been announced by E. C. Ruecker, of Newberry, district supervisor.

In a statement issued Saturday Ruecker said:

"Beaver and other trapping licenses shall be valid only from 12 noon EST April 1, 1953, to 12 noon EST April 14, 1953, and shall authorize the person named therein to use steel traps only, of a number not to exceed 15 at any one time, and to take not more than six beavers and three others during the season herein provided."

No beaver and other trapping licenses will be sold after 5 p. m., April 1, Ruecker pointed out. Persons under 12 cannot purchase a license. Cost of the license is $2 and the sealing fee is $1 a pelt.

All beaver and other hides taken by a licensee during the season must be taken to a conservation officer in the area in which the animals were trapped for registering and sealing. This must be done by 5 p. m., April 16.

The conservation officer will keep a record of hides and seal them with a metal seal provided by the department.

Licenses will be available from the following conservation officers: Leslie Walstrom, Seney; Clyde Lambert, Grand Marais; Ernest Derwin, Manistique; Charles Vanderstar, Naubinway; Joseph Hill, Pickford; and Raymond Walker, St. Ignace. They also may be purchased at district headquarters in Newberry, department offices in Sault Ste. Marie, and from L. E. Jankowski at Buck Horn Lodge, Trout Lake.

Pelts may be sealed at the following places on the dates indicated, Ruecker said:

District headquarters, Newberry, April 2 to 5 p. m., April 16; Seney equipment station, 12 noon April 14 to 5 p. m., April 15; Manistique equipment station, 12 noon April 14 to 5 p. m., April 16; Naubinway equipment station, April 15, 8 a. m., to 4 p. m.; department offices in the Sault, April 2 to 5 p. m., April 16; Trout Lake town hall, April 14, 12 noon to 6 p. m.; Moran hotel, April 16, 8 a. m., to 12 noon; Lipsett Garage, Pickford, April 15, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

At this time of sealing trappers will be asked to provide the following information on where their beaver were trapped: County, township, town and range, on what waters, number of days trapped and average number of traps set each day.

St. Joe Captures U.P. Class C Cage Crown

Trojans Stage Late Rally To Top Crystal Falls Quint By 61 To 59

By RAY CRANDALL
(Daily Press Sports Editor)

HOUGHTON—The Upper Peninsula Class C high school basketball crown is perched on the brow of the St. Joe Trojan cage squad today after Coach Tom St. Germain's lion-hearted charges staged another of their nerve-shattering rallies to nip a dangerous Crystal Falls quint by a 61-59 margin here in the title tilt Saturday night.

A near capacity crowd at Sherman gym thundered a mighty ovation to the new champions when they came from behind in the closing seconds to wrest victory from Coach Eddie Chambers' hard-working Crystal Falls Trojans.

St. Joe capped a stormy tournament journey on a familiar pattern. They had come from far behind to defeat the Bessemer Speed Boys 62-58 in the regional semifinals here Friday night. And they won the district tournament title at Negaunee by rallying to down L'Anse 64-44 after trailing 34-22 at the half.

Two Big Free Throws

Senior guard John Martinec set the stage for the Trojan victory with a minute and 20 seconds left in the game. He was fouled by Crystal Falls' Gary Aberly and stepped to the free throw line for two shots with St. Joe trailing 59-57. Martinec drilled the laces with both gift shots to tie it up at 59-59.

With only 30 seconds remaining, St. Joe got its chance to go ahead when Dick Cass, junior forward who led the Trojans in their championship bid Saturday night with 18 points, was fouled under the basket. Cass' first shot rolled off the rim but his second plunked through the net to put St. Joe out in front 60-59.

Crystal Falls was unable to get through the St. Joe defense in a last-second desperation bid and the Trojans wrapped up the title when Jim Zimmerman was fouled by Crystal Falls' diminutive guard John Leppiaho with two seconds remaining in the game. Zimmerman missed his first shot but dropped the second to give the Trojans an insurance point. Crystal Falls was unable to move the ball across the mid-court line before the final gun sounded.

Free Throw Margin

Once again the Trojans used the free throw line as a springboard to victory. Outscored from the field 20 baskets to 19, they converted on 23 of 31 free throws while Crystal Falls was able to connect on only 19 of 39.

There was a wide spread in the fouls as the St. Joe cagers were whistled on 24 times by officials John Sartoris of Bessemer and Rudy Simonich of Ironwood. Crystal Falls finished with 18 personals. St. Joe had 13 personals at the half while Crystal Falls had seven.

St. Joe went ahead briefly after the opening tipoff but Crystal Falls dominated play throughout the first period. With classy Victor Kivimaki leading the way, Crystal Falls sported an 18-15 margin at the end of the period.

Take Slim Lead

With three minutes to play in the second period St. Joe caught up, 25-25, on a one-hand jump shot by Jim Gravelle. Kivimaki put Crystal Falls back in front with a free throw but with two minutes left in the period Martinec scored on a long set shot and St. Joe kept up the pressure to lead 32-30 at the half.

Midway in the third period St. Joe stretched the margin to 38-32. A Crystal Falls spurt tied it at 42-42 with two minutes remaining in the period and the Iron County quint led 45-44 at the end of the quarter.

St. Joe's hopes dimmed in the final frame when Crystal Falls slowed down the action. After three minutes had elapsed Crystal Falls had stretched its lead to 48-44.

Score Tied 51-51

But the Trojans fought back furiously and tied it up at 51-51 with 3:51 remaining on the score-clock. Four straight free throws by center Dick Bryson and guard Bob Sendenburgh and field goals by Sendenburgh and Cass brought St. Joe back into the game.

Crystal Falls regained the lead with 2:40 remaining when Kivimaki scored on two gift tosses and a field goal and Bruce Hunter hit a free throw. Gravelle fouled out of the game at this point.

At the two minute mark St. Joe tied it again, 56-56, on a field goal by Zimmerman. Cass and Leppiaho both made free throws to tie it at 57-57 and Aberly hit the laces with a jump shot to put Crystal Falls ahead 59-57 shortly before the Crystal Falls cager fouled Martinec to start St. Joe on its way to victory in the final minute of the game.

Kivimaki took scoring honors with 28 points on eight baskets and 12 of 21 free throws.

First U. P. Crown

For St. Joe, the regional championship came after the Trojans had lost in the U. P. finals for two straight years. Last season the St. Joe quint was defeated by Houghton and the previous year Soo Loretto stopped St. Joe's title bid.

It is the first Upper Peninsula crown ever won by a St. Joe basketball team and the Trojans will be Escanaba's first representative in downstate tournament action in history.

The Trojans finished their Upper Peninsula record with 17 victories against three losses, exactly the same mark as they have posted in the past two seasons.

18 points. The St. Joe Trojans closed a narrow gap in the final period and edged Crystal Falls 61-59. In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

The Upper Peninsula today boasts three new high school cage champions and one repeater. . . The Manistique Emeralds (Class B), St. Joe Trojans (Class C) and Gwinn (Class D) are trying their new crowns for size while Nahma (Class E) is readjusting the headpiece which it won for the first time last year.

After watching Coach Rudy Brandstrom's Manistique quint wade through the Menominee Maroons at Negaunee in the Class B semifinals Friday night, we caught the St. Joe Trojans in their championship bid at Houghton Saturday night. . . And we saw true champions at work both nights.

The Emeralds have power-plus and are geared for continuous fast action. . . Brandstrom has three outstanding performers in Paul Hinkson, Warren Wilson and Bob McNamara and steady workers in Carl Scharstrom and Gary Richards who round out the starting lineup. . . The Emeralds are the most potent team we've seen this season.

We've never seen a more spirited squad than the current edition of Coach Tom St. Germain's Trojans. . . The St. Joe cagers own hearts as big as the basketballs they so capably handle. . . The team is not blessed with a brilliant individual performer this season but any one of more than a half a dozen squad members is capable of catching fire to spark the quint. . . The Trojans have the rare ability to come back under pressure, as their tournament record so well illustrates.

In their last three starts—the district finals and the two regional tournament games—St. Joe has trailed by rather uncomfortable margins. . . But in each case the Trojans have rallied to blast their opponent by the final gun. . . It is almost miraculous the way the Trojans fight back when the odds are the heaviest against them.

No small credit, of course, is due the St. Joe mentor who has guided his Trojans to such a remarkable basketball record. . . St. Germain instills the utmost confidence in his cagers and has molded some splendid basketball players at St. Joe in recent years. . . Since he began coaching at St. Joe in the 1949 season, St. Germain has guided his teams to 79 victories against only 19 defeats. . . That's a record hard to match in the tough Upper Peninsula basketball grind.

cage season with a record of 16 victories against six losses after closing strong to challenge Perkings for the championship of the Central League.

It was the third straight year in the finals for the Arrows. Nahma, with an enrollment of only 22 boys, lost in the regional championship game to Michigamme in 1951.

In 1952 the New York Yankees hit 129 home runs. This marked the 29th consecutive year that the Yanks hit 100 or more homers.

Pete Runnels of the Washington Senators played in 152 games last season and did not steal a single base.

Gwinn Quint Downs Powers 79-50 For Class D Crown

NEGAUNEE—A red-hot shooting Gwinn Model Towner quint downed the Powers-Spaulding Tigers 79-50 here Saturday afternoon to capture the Upper Peninsula Class D basketball championship.

Coach Dominic Ghiardi's Gwinn cagers melted the hoop with 24 points in the first quarter to take a comfortable 24-12 lead from which the Tigers never recovered.

Deadly outside shooting by Gwinn's John Bianchi, starting forward, broke the back of the Powers attack. Bianchi scored 10 field goals, many of them from deep in the corner, and added five free throws for 25 points, high for the evening. Three other Gwinn cagers hit in double figures with Barry Mussatto hitting 17, Jack Thurston 13 and Bill Stine 11.

Leading the Powers quint on the scoreboard was center Jim Sargent who counted 17 points on six field goals and five free throws. Powers lost the services of Don O'Neil and Don Bellefeuil on five personal fouls.

After trailing by a wide margin throughout the first period, Powers came back to outscore Gwinn 17-16 in the second period to cut the deficit to 40-29 at the half. But the sharp-shooting Model Towners turned on the pressure with 25 points in the third period and led 65-38 entering the final quarter.

Coach Irving Soderlund will lose seven members of his district championship quint through graduation this year. Seniors on the squad are John Henderson, Ray Wells, Billy Wells, Don O'Neil, Don Bellefeuil, Doug Browy and Lemrod LaBonte.

This is the second U. P. Class D championship in Gwinn's history. The Model Towners copied top honors for the first time in 1949.

Radars Top Portage Lake 8-3, To Face Hawks In Playoffs

HOUGHTON — The defending champion Portage Lake Pioneers were jolted to a sudden stop here Saturday night when they bowed to the Calumet Radars 8-3 in the third and final of a three game semifinal playoff series.

The Radars will go against the Escanaba Hawks, winner of the other playoff series against the Marquette Sentinels, at Calumet Tuesday night in the first of a best-of-five championship series for the Doc Gibson trophy.

The second game of the title series will be played at the Escanaba fairgrounds indoor rink Thursday night. Third game of the series will be at Calumet Saturday night.

Head official for the title series between Calumet and Escanaba will be Leonard Brumm of Marquette, ex-University of Alaska hockey and football coach.

Calumet completely outplayed the Pioneers Saturday night to grab the playoff plum. Owen O'Brien turn in a spectacular scoring game, denting the Portage Lake nets four times. Merv Paulson and Aino Kemp scored twice each for the winners while Tony Bukovich hit for all three Houghton scores.

Only one penalty was called in the game and that for a minor offense. Mike Bukovich was absent from the Portage Lake lineup and his loss was sorely felt by the defending champs.

Frank Sotlich, playing in the Calumet goal in the absence of injured Jim Kuusisto, made 22 stops. Clyde Berryman stopped 21 for Portage Lake before an injury in the third period took him out of action.

Cage Quarter-final Tourney Foes Listed

By JOE FALLS

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

This is "Clutch Week" in the State High School Basketball Tournament.

This is the week when the ball gets heavier while the baskets get smaller.

This is the week when champions are made.

When the tournament started two weeks ago, more than 650 teams were entered. Today only 32 are left—and this number will be sliced in half by Wednesday's quarter-finals.

Two defending champions—St. Louis Class C and Fowler Class D—have been sent to the sidelines. Two are left. They are Highland Park Class A and Detroit St. Andrew Class B.

Of the two, St. Andrew seems to have the better chance of winning again. It has shown poise, scoring power and come-from-behind strength in sweeping through the district and regional eliminations.

Here are the teams who will play in the quarter-finals:

Class A

Bay City Central vs. Lansing Sexton.

East Detroit vs. Highland Park.

Ford vs. Jackson.

Holland vs. Grand Rapids South.

Class B

St. Joseph vs. Adrian.

Detroit St. Andrew vs. Inkster.

Grand Blanc vs. Ulica.

Ludington vs. Manistique.

Class C

Hartford vs. Napoleon.

Grosse Pointe St. Paul vs. Saginaw St. Mary.

Muskegon St. Mary vs. Remus.

East Jordan vs. Escanaba St. Joseph.

Class D

Muskegon St. Joseph vs. Stevensville.

Detroit All Saints vs. DeWitt.

Maple Grove vs. Beal City.

Ellsworth vs. Gwinn.

The winners of these games will converge on Lansing and East Lansing for the semi-finals on Friday and the finals on Saturday.

The finals will be held in Michigan State's Jensen Field House, with afternoon and evening sessions on tap.

U.P. Cage Champions Play At Mt. Pleasant

Upper Peninsula high school basketball champions in three classes—B, C and D—will enter the state tournament quarter-finals Wednesday night at Mt. Pleasant's Central Michigan College fieldhouse.

The opener will pit Gwinn against Ellsworth at 6 p. m. (EST).

the St. Joe Trojans of Escanaba will meet East Jordan at 7:30 and the Manistique Emeralds will take on Ludington at 9.

Nahma, U. P. Class E champion, will not compete downstate. The Class B semifinals and championship games will be played at Jensen Fieldhouse in East Lansing. Class C semifinals will be at Lansing Boy Vocational School and the D semis will be at Lansing Sexton High. Semifinal games are Friday and all championship games will be at Jensen Fieldhouse Saturday.

Wolves Win College Hockey Championship
COLORADO SPRING, Colo. (AP)—Michigan is National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) hockey champion for the third year in a row. They beat Minnesota for the title by a 7-3 score here Saturday night.

And what is more, the Wolverines placed central John Matchets and defenseman Alex McClellan on the all-star tournament team of The Associated Press. Matchets, incidentally, was voted "Most valuable player" in the poll of officials and coaches.

The Michigan-Minnesota championship game was close half the way through, but in the third period, Matchets scored twice and Haas and Philpott each banged in a goal to set it up for the Wolverines. The Gophers got only one (by Ken Yackel) in the final period.

"Team Victory"

"It was a team victory for Nahma," Coach Anderson emphasized after the hectic action. "We started out the season with four new men and it took a while to get going. But all the boys played excellent ball in defeating a very good Marenisco club."

Newhouse led Nahma's scoring with 23 points, followed closely by Roddy with 20. Center Donald Groleau hit a dozen points.

Scoring honors for the evening went to Marenisco's Tom Gagnon who scored 24 points on 12 field goals. Prosser chipped in 17 for the losers.

Nahma's margin of victory was entirely in the final two seconds. The arrows had one more field goal and one more free throw than Marenisco.

Nahma wound up the 1952-53

Manistique New U. P. Class B Champion

Emeralds Tip Negaunee 43-41 In Title Clash

NEGAUNEE — The Manistique Emeralds wrote a story book climax to a fantastic basketball season against Negaunee here Saturday night in the last minute of action to win their first Upper Peninsula championship, 43-41. It was the Emeralds' 19th straight victory.

The deadly battle ground to a startling finish when Negaunee's Jim Simpson fouled out on McNamara with only seconds left to play and the score tied at 41-41.

The calm and accurate Emerald center marched to the foul line and sank both throws to smash the deadlock and give Manistique its spectacular triumph.

Fate, however, threw another chance to Negaunee as the last second ticked away on the clock.

Negaunee's Last Chance

Negaunee's last and "stall-happy" guard, Gordon Farragh, raced down the court to get in a shot before the whistle and was fouled by Ray Cummings with half a second left. In fact so close was the action that the moment of fouling had to be rechecked with the timer.

The burden of responsibility proved too much for Farragh whose first throw was off target a good eight inches. He deliberately missed his second try pointing for a rebound shot by one of the tense, clustered Miners in the half second allowed after the sphere hit the basket rim. This would have knotted the count and thrown the game into an overtime.

McNamara Scores 19

McNamara, whose accuracy at the foul line netted 11 points, also flipped in the tying bucket a minute ahead of the whistle. His game total was 19.

An able assist in the Emerald victory came from Ray Cummings who potted one field goal and six gift shots. Hinkson hit for nine and Warren Wilson, who fouled out midway of the third, connected for two buckets and a charity toss.

Marvin Maki, who also fouled out in the third shortly after Wilson, was top scorer for Negaunee, zipping in four field throws and three gift shots.

Grimly fearful of Manistique scoring punch, the Miners stalled through the game but the West breaks that had confounded Ironwood Friday night crashed into an Emerald wall under the basket. Emerald defenders simply refused to step aside as the Miners charged in for short shots, and the resulting Negaunee fouls were a factor in Manistique's win.

Face Is Slow

The continuing stalls, utilized repeatedly after Negaunee had amassed a margin in the opening quarter, had a deadening effect on the pace and drew thunderous boos from the crowd.

The Miners piled up a 14-7 margin in the opening stanza but the Emeralds slashed back in the second to outscore Negaunee, 11 to 5. Two free throws by Jack Johnson, one by Maki and a bucket by Farragh were all that Negaunee could hit while Hinkson connected twice from the field, Wilson and Richards potted one each, and McNamara struck once from the foul line and Cummings twice. Negaunee's half time edge was a slender 19-18.

The Miners clung to a slender margin until McNamara knotted the count at 23-23 about midway of the third. Ellis made it 23-25 but Cummings flipped in his only field goal to knot the tally again at 25-25.

Before the period ended the Miners managed to stretch their lead to 31-26 but free throws by Cummings and McNamara reduced it to 31-28 at the quarter whistle.

Emeralds Get Lead

As the fateful fourth opened the Miners pushed ahead to a five-point edge on a bucket by Ron Laitinen. Shortly afterwards Laitinen fouled out on Cummings who again connected from the foul line. Negaunee pushed its margin to seven but two gift shots and a field goal by McNamara sliced it back to 36-33.

With the count standing at 38-35, Negaunee began to see its victory dream go glimmering when McNamara and Hinkson connected from the field to give Manistique its first lead, 39-38.

With only three minutes left Johnson lanced another bucket through the hoops to push Negaunee ahead. Shortly afterwards Hinkson and Johnson collided in a double foul but both missed. As time ticked away Johnson potted Negaunee's final score from the foul line, setting up what looked like the winning margin, 41-39, as Miner fans went wild.

With just a minute left McNamara took a pass under the basket and potted the tying count.

As the capacity crowd watched tensely, Simpson committed his fatal fifth personal on McNamara with only seconds remaining.

The towering Washington Huskies, most frequently mentioned even as the tournament favorites, turned on Santa Clara, an at large representative, 74-62 at Corvallis, Ore.

Indiana made the final rollick, 79-66, over Notre Dame at Chicago, and Louisiana State trimmed Holy Cross, 81-73, at Raleigh, N. C.

On a basis of the latest ratings in the Associated Press poll No. 1 Indians would be the favorite, but Washington is getting the top billing mainly because of the presence of its Ull America Bob Houbregs. Washington was voted No. 2 nationally.

Pare Big Ten Cage Schedule

CHICAGO (P)—Big Ten basketball teams will play only 14 conference games in 1953-54, compared with 18 over the past season. Coaches abandoned the longer league schedule on orders of their athletic directors.

Total games are limited to 22, which would permit eight non-conference games, instead of the four for 1952-53.

The conference's new schedule gives each member five home-and-home games and four single games will be reversed.

Here are the new schedules drawn by Michigan and Michigan State:

Michigan: Home-and-home — Illinois, Iowa, Michigan State, Northwestern Ohio State; Singles — Indiana (home), Minnesota (away), Purdue (home), and Wisconsin (away).

Michigan State: Home-and-home — Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Northwestern, Wisconsin; Singles — Purdue (away), Ohio State (home), Illinois (home) and Minnesota (away).

Although six men comprise a hockey team, Yale's 1952-53 varsity hockey roster lists 33 men. Seven are littermen.

Four Teams Left In NCAA Cage Tourney

KANSAS CITY (P)—The East-West deadlock for the National Collegiate Athletic Association's basketball supremacy will be broken in a pair of showdown double-headers here this week.

That's the only safe prediction for the 15th NCAA cage extravaganza involving Indiana and Louisiana State of the Eastern section, and Kansas and Washington of the West in the payoff games in Municipal Auditorium tomorrow and Wednesday nights.

Housiers Get Win

Indiana (1-13), Big Ten champion, and Louisiana State (24-1), Southeastern kingpin, will open the firing before a sellout crowd of about 10,500 at 7:45 P.M. (CST).

The Kansas Jayhawks (18-5), NCAA and Big Seven champs, and the Washington Huskies (29-2), Pacific Coast representative, will settle the Western issue.

All four finalists came through on the form schedule in regional playoffs Saturday.

Coach Phog Allen's Kansas crew dumped Oklahoma A & M a two-time national champion, 65-55, at Manhattan, Kas. The Kansas had to put on a great defensive stand in the closing minutes.

High Spots In Cage Tourneys

By The Associated Press

Here are the highlights of Saturday's regional finals on the State High School Basketball Tournament:

Class A — Highland Park, defending champion, downed Grosse Pointe, 62-50, as Bernard Jones scored 18 points and sparkled under the backboards. Unbeaten Lansing Sexton rolled to its 18th straight victory, whipping Flint Central, 71-58. Dean Vander Wal scored 33 points in Holland's 63-53 victory over Grand Rapids Creston.

Class B — Defending champion Detroit Detroit, 57-52. Unbeaten Manistique, which had been averaging better than 80 points a game during the tournament, barely nipped Negaunee, 43-41, on Bob McNamara's two free tosses in the final seconds.

Class C—Unbeaten Remus ran its streak to 23 by wallpating Edmore, 53-36. Last week Edmore ousted defending champion St. Louis.

Class D—Fowler, the defending champion, was sent to the sidelines by Beal City, 44-40. Ellsworth ended Lake Leelanau's St. Mary's first loss of the season.

Class E—Nahma won its second straight Upper Peninsula title, edging Marenisco, 67-64, with three points in the last two seconds.

Reynolds Pulls Muscle In First Pitching Job

By ED CORRIGAN
AP Sports Writer

Allie Reynolds, the big chief of the New York Yankees pitching staff both in the matter of his Illinois, Iowa, Michigan State, Northwestern Ohio State; Singles — Indiana (home), Minnesota (away), Purdue (home), and Wisconsin (away).

But Manager Casey Stengel wasn't worried because the injury is a minor one—especially for a fellow who has been hit with all sort of miseries during spring training. Allie, a 20-game winner last year, has a month to get over it before the season opens.

Ol' Case trotted out his first line of defense Sunday for its first appearance and what he saw was a beautiful exhibition of pitching as the Yanks polished off the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1.

Allowed One Hit

Reynolds, in his debut against the Dodgers, gave up only one hit in two innings before he retired. Vic Raschi and Ewell Blackwell finished up allowing only three hits.

The Detroit Tigers licked the Boston Braves, 9-6, on a couple of home runs by Rufus Crawford and Johnny Bucha in the ninth inning, each coming with one man on base. Hal Newhouser and Ned Garver did the pitching chores for the winners.

Dunne Pillette and Harry Brecheen combined for one of the best pitching jobs so far in San Francisco when the St. Louis Browns shut out the local club, 2-0. Pillette gave up only two hits in the first five innings while Brecheen tossed hitless ball for the last four.

Homers Off Maglie

The Cleveland Indians needed a home run from Larry Doby to score a 3-2 victory over the New York Giants. The big blow came off ace Giant righthander, Sol Maglie. He also yielded both other Cleveland tallies.

The Philadelphia A's, with rookies Ed Monahan, Bill Harrington and Ed Hrabecak toiling on the mound, whipped the Washington Senators, 7-1. The U's broke a 1-all deadlock with five runs in the seventh.

Bob Rush, top man of the Chicago Cubs' pitching staff, gave up only one hit in five innings and got credit for an 8-3 decision over the Chicago White Sox.

With Stu Miller hurling six innings, the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-1, at St. Petersburg, while at Tampa, Ernie Nevel and Eddie Blake pitched the Cincinnati Reds to a 4-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Kiner Inks Pact

The Pittsburgh pirates were idle but got their best news in some time when Ralph Kiner, the club's home run slugger, ended his two-week holdout siege by agreeing to the terms originally offered him.

Kiner, who earlier in the day said he was "hurt and baffled" by the latest blast from General Manager Branch Rickey in the pair's running argument, announced his decision just 30 minutes before the March 15 deadline set by Rickey. The general manager had said negotiations would start all over if Kiner failed to agree in time.

Although he was cut from his reported $90,000 pay of last year, Kiner is expected to receive just under $76,000. He has said all along he was willing to take a cut after batting only 244 last year—even though he did hit 37 homers—but he and Rickey couldn't agree on the size of the cut.

TAMPA, Fla. (P)—The American League is expected to give Bill Veeck the green light today in his efforts to shift the St. Louis Browns franchise to Baltimore.

Lou Perini's plans to move the Boston Braves to Milwaukee will come up for vote Wednesday when the National League meets at St. Petersburg following an American Association meeting earlier the same day.

No solid resistance to either move appeared at Sunday's executive council meeting at Bel-air, Fla., where Commissioner Ford Frick held a preliminary hearing with officials of the four clubs and leagues involved.

Need Sanction Yet

Approval by the American League at today's special meeting at Tampa would not bring major league ball to Baltimore officially. It would still require the sanction of the International League which will meet within the next 48 hours, as soon as the scattered officials can get together.

Frick told both Veeck of the Browns and Lou Perini, president of the Braves, rules must follow the established rules of procedure in their franchise shifts. He pointed out each move must have the approval of the major and minor leagues concerned.

While raising no objections to the proposed moves before the imminent 1953 season, he indicated he was not too happy about such major transactions at this late date.

Time Is Short

With the Major League season only four weeks from today, there is little time to rush through the big changes — first in 50 years.

Perini huddled with Bruce Dudley, American Association president, American Association presi-day. Approval of the AA at its meeting Wednesday at St. Petersburg appears a mere matter of formality.

The International League, however, has a more difficult problem. President Frank Shaughnessy, irked by the sudden turn of events, complained, "if we want to draft territory of some other minor league, we can't do it. But the majors can take one of our best cities any time they feel like it."

The minors adopted a rule last December banning any move into the territory of another minor league, except between Oct. 1 and Dec. 1.

Although Shaughnessy refused to name any potential sites for his eighth franchise, should Baltimore turn major, indications were that Hartford, Conn. might be the spot.

Veeck refused to discuss details of his Baltimore status, claiming he still was in St. Louis — officially.

The dynamic head of the Browns said there would be no schedule problems if Baltimore replaced St. Louis. He said the "Orioles" could play the Browns' schedule without any changes.

"In fact, the other clubs would save mileage," he said.

Slavery Still Exists, Report To UN Reveals

By A. I. GOLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A three-year survey of the United Nations shows that actual crude slavery still exists in some sections of the world, but information is incomplete and the solution is not easy.

U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie summed up the situation in a report calling on the U. N. Economic and Social Council to study further steps to meet the slavery problem when it meets here March 31.

In Lie's report, based on the work of a special committee which has been studying the slavery problem since 1950, Lie told the council no satisfactory definition of slavery ever has been reached.

Serfdom Practical

The world has been trying to control slavery under an international treaty framed by the League of Nations in 1926. This defines slavery as "the status or condition of a person over whom any or all of the powers attaching to the right of ownership are exercised."

The special committee reported that other forms of servitude include debt bondage, serfdom or peonage on farms, contracting out persons for hire, marriage customs where the woman is deprived of free human rights, and child transfers for payment or other conditions which exploit the child.

Nine U. N. members and seven non-members did not answer requests for governmental information. Lie listed them as Cuba, Haiti, Liberia, Nicaragua, Paraguay, Poland, Saudi Arabia, The Ukraine and Yemen, all U. N. members; and Albania, Andorra, the Sultanate of Muscat and Oman, Portugal, Romania, San Marino and Spain.

No Soviet Problem

The Ukraine answered only by calling attention to a Soviet Union reply that "the problem of slavery... does not arise in the Soviet Union."

The slave labor inquiry did not apply to the question of forced labor and labor camps. That was taken up by another assembly committee after charges that millions of subjected peoples were used as slave labor by the Soviet Union.

Both Lie and the special com-

Stroke Victim Hit By Mistake

IONIA (AP)—An elderly man, who suffered a stroke and then was beaten mistakenly by a neighbor who thought him an intruder, was reported in serious condition in the Ionia County Memorial Hospital.

The man, Raymond Edwards, was admitted to the hospital Wednesday. Police said he was found in a dazed condition near his home late Tuesday night. The neighbor, Walter Phelps, said Edwards approached him to ask directions in locating his house.

Phelps, a used car dealer said he directed Edwards to his house and then heard a commotion a few minutes later and saw Edwards lying in the street.

Police chief Thomas McKindry said Edwards, dazed by the stroke, apparently went to the wrong house and the owner, who was unidentified, threw the elderly man out, thinking he was an intruder.

TO ATOM POST — Rear Adm. Lewis L. Strauss, a New York banker, has been appointed executive assistant to President Eisenhower for consultation on atomic matters. He had been a member of the AEC from 1946 to 1950 when he resigned. He will be on leave of absence from the Rockefeller interests for whom he is an economic adviser.

mittee agreed that some government information received differed sharply from information gathered from private sources.

Lie told the Economic and Social Council that it appeared further study is necessary to find out just how much and what kind of servitude still exist, before measures to stamp it out could be considered.
